SIEMENS NAMES NEW SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER TO FEDERAL BUSINESS

WASHINGTON, April 2, 2012 – Siemens announced today that John “Clay” Hale has been appointed as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for Siemens Government Technologies, Inc. In this senior management position, Hale will play a key role in driving the company’s business strategies and investments and will be responsible for overseeing all aspects of financial management, accounting and controls.

"We are extremely fortunate and pleased to have Clay join us," said Judy Marks, President and CEO of Siemens Government Technologies, Inc. "The combination of Clay’s extensive financial leadership, knowledge of Siemens and experience working across multiple divisions in our industry sector makes him an excellent addition to our team as we work to grow our business in the federal market."

Hale joined Siemens in 1994 and most recently served as Vice President of Finance and Business Administration for the expanding Customer Services division of Siemens Industry, Inc., where he was responsible for leading all commercial and financial aspects of the U.S. division.

Hale began his career in 1985 as an accountant with Price Waterhouse in Raleigh, North Carolina where he focused on the manufacturing and banking industries. In 1988, he joined AVX Corporation, formerly Corning Electronics, as controller for their Raleigh Electronics Manufacturing facility.

Hale is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from The Citadel and an MBA from Duke University.
